CODE OF CONDUCT

East London Soccer Club is a recreational soccer league committed to providing quality soccer programming for children ages 3 to 18. We believe that soccer athletic competition should be fun and should promote character-building in our children through the values of: sportsmanship, trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and good citizenship. We believe the highest potential of sports is achieved and the quality of our program improved when, as adults, we consciously Teach, Enforce, Advocate and Model (T.E.A.M.) these values for our children and are committed to the ideal of pursuing victory with honour.

Children, volunteers, coaches, assistant coaches, parents and family are by definition members of the East London Soccer Club and are therefore required to abide by our Code of Conduct.

As a member of East London Soccer Club:

1. You are responsible for representing yourself and our league with respect.
2. You will not engage in bullying of the referees or coaches.
3. You will adhere to City by-laws on the soccer pitches.
4. You will ensure family and friends follow the Code of Conduct at the fields when they come to watch your child play.

Violations of the Code of Conduct may result in:

1. Disciplinary review.
2. Banishment from the fields.
3. Removal from the East London Soccer Club.
